

The Rainbow Centre Vision & Mission Statement

Introduction

This document was submitted to the March 09 meeting of the Trustees of the Rainbow Centre, It was approved at that meeting and is due for review in March 2012.

The Vision

The Rainbow Centre aims to be a practical example of God's love to the community. Those who play a part want to be Jesus' hands, smiles and encouragement in the local community.

The Rainbow Centre wishes to follow Jesus' model of compassion to the community. The Centre wants to be relevant, equitable, non-partisan, non judgmental, willing to engage and take faithful risks.

The Mission

To support uplift and encourage those in need within the parish of St Mary's & Holy Apostles and the wider community of Scarborough through:

- Practical relief of poverty by the operation of the Rainbow Centre - a community space and other facilities
- The provision of training and other educational programmes to tackle the root causes of poverty
- The provision of programmes, services and activities to facilitate social, physical and spiritual welfare within the community.
